

Lights, Camera, Action: Here Are The Movie Theatres You Must Visit On Your Orlando Vacation

There's nothing quite like watching a great movie on the big screen. Whether it's the opening night of a film you've been waiting for or a throwback to a classic you loved back in the day, you should try to catch a show at one of Orlando's movie theatres during your luxury vacation.

If you're a movie-lover planning to visit Orlando, there are various movie theaters you need to cross off your list. It'll be the experience of a lifetime!

Fork & Screen Dine-in Theatre

Are you guilty of sitting in front of the screen with your dinner each night? Easy access to film and T.V. in the house has left most of us slaves to this habit, and amazingly, businesses know this!

The Fork & Screen Dine-in Theatre is one of the many of its kind in Florida. Enjoy a meal of your choice and any of the movies playing—while following housekeeping rules, of course. Comfortable seats, great food, and a big screen that's impossible to look away from! A dream come true.

Regal Cinemas Winter Park Village

Regal Cinemas offer you a classic movie theatre feeling with an upgrade. The exterior has a homely, vintage appeal, but inside you have recliners and the most comfortable seats for the ultimate movie experience. Sit back and indulge in snacks, drinks, or even adult beverages from the bar! What more could you want?

Cinemark Orlando

The Cinemark Orlando is a popular local cinema that's been a long-standing favorite of moviegoers because of its competitive prices and lack of crowds. Orlando is a tourist hub, which means a lot of people flock major tourist destinations, including cinemas all through the year. This place is a hidden gem in the former Artegon Mall and perfect for a classic, old-school, wholesome movie-going experience.

Universal Studios Florida

Of course, what's a trip to Orlando, especially as a film fanatic, without going to the incredible theme park? Universal Studios has given rise to cinematic masterpieces such as Jason Bourne, The Fast and The Furious franchise, animated modern classics like Despicable Me, and their park pays homage to many of their films. They also regularly screen these films across the park, and it's the perfect place to be for that cinematic rush you're chasing!

Regal Pointe Orlando

Did someone say 4D and IMAX? 'Cause that's exactly what this bad-boy offers! For the ultimate theatre experience, packed with special effects and surround sound, head to this cinema. You're in for an adventure—without moving an inch from your seat.

Your vacation home!

How could we leave this out? Many of our vacation homes come with incredible, diverse home entertainment systems, including home-theatres that include surrounding sound, large screens, and Wi-Fi so you can stream and play whatever you like in the comfort of your home.
